COMMENT / QUESTION:

To Whom it may concern:

I would like to bring this ebay listing to the attention of the correct persons, police, & park officials. This item that has been listed was stolen from the abandoned bus #142 in the Denali state park on the stampede trail in Alaska's great wild.

As you may or may not know this bus now represents somewhat of a memorial site to the fallen hiker Chris McCandless who died there. I feel these items should be returned to the bus and the people who took the items should be punished. I have included a link to their ebay listing as follows:

As well as a video posted on youtube.com of them taking such items as follows: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PZARLvsC0Vg>

I beg of you to bring this to the attention of the public so that it will gain the influence needed. I believe as I hope you do that the items taken should be recovered and returned to the site.

respectfully,

Bernerd William Maletsky, III
